By submitting this document to Connexin you acknowledge the following:

- That your number porting request can only proceed if the information you have provided in this Porting Questionnaire is complete and correct in every respect.
- That if your number porting fails due to incorrectly submitted information that you may be invoiced a surcharge of £20.00 (ex. VAT) by Connexin for each such instance, even if your porting attempt should ultimately be unsuccessful.
- That Connexin cannot guarantee that your preferred porting date will be honoured.
- That when your number porting is completed, the telephone line provided by your current service provider will cease, and that any and all other associated services on this line will also cease.
- That your porting request will fail if you terminate your services with your current service provider before your porting date.
