

Connexin Broadband Usage Policies

USAGE POLICIES

Any terms in capitals not defined in these Usage Policies will have the same meaning as in your Agreement. These Usage Policies apply to you and anybody you allow to use Connexin Broadband. Any reference to “you” shall be interpreted to mean you and anybody you allow to use Connexin Broadband. You are responsible for the use of Connexin Broadband by any person you allow to use it including anyone who accesses Connexin Broadband because you have removed the wireless encryption security on your wireless router.

How we update our Usage Policies

Our latest Usage Policies will always be posted on our website at www.connexin.co.uk so please keep checking for updates.

Usage Caps Broadband

If you subscribe to a Product that has a cap on the amount of data that you download or upload via your Connexin Broadband internet access each month (“Usage Cap”), your usage must not go over that Usage Cap each month. For the current Usage Caps on each Product, please contact us or, if you have access on the online Connexin portal you can find it there too.

If you go over your Usage Cap, we will suspend your Connexin Broadband. You can reactive service by purchasing additional data or upgrading your Product to one with a higher Usage Cap.

If you go over your Usage Cap more than once in any six-month period, then we may:

- 1) upgrade you to a Product with a higher Usage Cap. Once you have been upgraded, you may downgrade without charge to your original Product if you reduce your monthly usage to below the Usage Cap for your original Product in any subsequent month; or
- 2) charge you fair and reasonable costs for your usage (and any reasonable administration costs) in excess of your Usage Cap;

If we do either of these things, we will let you know in writing. In this notice we will also explain the consequences of you going over your Usage Cap, for example, the increased subscription or other charges you incur.

To ensure you get your email alerts you should make sure we have an email address that is up-to-date and that you check for emails regularly. If we receive a failed delivery notice after sending an alert we will not send your alert by post.

We may at our discretion delay the application of the above process without notice.

Connexin Broadband Network Management Policy

Connexin Broadband is subject to a Network Management (or Fair Usage) Policy. The purpose of the Policy is to ensure that we are providing a fair and sustainable quality broadband service to all our Connexin Broadband customers. Under the Policy, available bandwidth is shared amongst all our Connexin Broadband customers who are online at the same time.

This means that speeds may be slower at peak times when more Connexin Broadband customers are online, compared to at other times when fewer people are online, in particular for customers using applications that require a lot of bandwidth (such as downloading films (particularly in HD) and other large files, or streaming services like BBC iPlayer, YouTube or Netflix). Our network is busiest between 5pm and midnight on weekdays and all day at the weekend, but can be busy at other times too, depending on regional, national and international demand.

Please note that this Network Management Policy only applies to Connexin Broadband.

Acceptable Use Policy

Irrespective of which Product you have subscribed to, our Acceptable Use Policy (“AUP”) will apply to you and those who you allow to use Connexin Broadband. If you have any queries about our AUP, you can contact us by Live Chat on www.connexin.co.uk.

Don't use Connexin Broadband illegally!

Connexin Broadband and Connexin's networks may only be used for lawful purposes in accordance with all laws, statutes and regulations in force from time to time in the United Kingdom (“Laws”).

You may not use Connexin Broadband and/or the Connexin's networks to send, receive, store, distribute, transmit, post, upload or download any materials or data which:

- a) violates any Law;
- b) is defamatory, offensive, abusive, indecent, obscene, or constitutes harassment;
- c) is or may be harmful to minors;
- d) promotes or encourages illegal or socially unacceptable or irresponsible behaviour;
- e) is in breach of any third party rights (including any third party intellectual property rights);
- f) has any fraudulent purpose or effect or involves you impersonating another person or otherwise misrepresenting yourself as the source of any communication; or
- g) damages or may damage our name and/or reputation or the name and/or reputation of our sub-Agreementors or agents.

We have put technical measures in place to prevent you from accessing certain websites that contain illegal images of child abuse that are identified from time to time by the Internet Watch Foundation (“IWF”). Although these filters are comprehensive, they do not provide an absolute guarantee that you will be unable to view such illegal images on the internet. In addition, these measures do not filter other content which you may find distasteful, such as “adult” material. On this basis, we recommend that you consider installing additional software on your computer to prevent access to inappropriate websites or content on the internet. For further information regarding the IWF, please visit their website at www.iwf.org.uk. Do not violate anyone's systems or network security. You must not use Connexin Broadband to violate Connexin's networks' security or any third party's system or network security by any method including:

- a) unauthorised access to or use of data, systems or networks, including any attempt to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of a system or network;
- b) unauthorised monitoring of data or traffic on any network or system without the express authorisation of the owner of the system or network; or
- c) unauthorised interference with any user, host, system or network without the express authorisation of the owner of the system or network. You must not send, receive, store, distribute, transmit, post, upload or download any materials that are designed to violate Connexin's Network's security or any third party's system or network security. Examples of such prohibited material may include (but are not limited to):
- d) programs containing viruses, worms, corrupted files, hoaxes, Trojan horses or any other items of a destructive or deceptive nature;

- e) tools designed to compromise the security of other sites;
- f) programs or services designed to send or facilitate the sending of unsolicited advertisements; or
- g) programs or services designed to encourage or facilitate a breach of this AUP or any acceptable use policy of another internet services provider.

You must not connect Connexin's networks to insecure machines, equipment or services able to be exploited by others to carry out actions which constitute a breach of this AUP. If you do, you must disconnect it immediately, or allow us to disconnect it for you at your expense.

You must not adapt, modify, decompile or reverse engineer any part of Connexin Broadband.

You are responsible for all materials and/or data originating from the machines and/or networks that you have connected to Connexin's networks. You must immediately disconnect (and subsequently secure prior to reconnection) machines generating materials and/or data which contravene this AUP once notified of such activity by Connexin.

Privacy

We will respect any business and personal information provided by you and undertake to comply with all data protection legislation currently in force. Any personal information provided by you shall be subject to our Privacy Policy. We shall not disclose your registration details to any third party without your permission unless in accordance with the terms of the Privacy Policy.

Messages

You must not send Messages to anyone who does not wish to receive them. We acknowledge that email and instant messaging are informal methods of communication however you must refrain from sending Messages to another user after receiving a request to stop.

You must not send unsolicited bulk Messages or any other form of abusive electronic communication. In particular, unsolicited advertising mailings (whether commercial or informational) are strictly prohibited. You must not operate, host, provide hosting facilities to or assist in any way any web site, email address, or any other online service which is advertised or promoted by means of unsolicited bulk Messages (whether commercial or informational), any mass messaging facility or any other form of abusive electronic communication.

You must not send, distribute, or reply to mail-bombs. Mail-bombing is either sending copies of a single message to many users, or sending large or multiple files or messages to a single user with the intention of disrupting their internet experience.

You must not use false Message headers or alter the headers of Messages to conceal their email address or to prevent internet users from responding to messages. You must not use any email address that you are not authorised to use.

You must not suggest or imply that any Message you send is from, authorised or endorsed by, any Connexin company or relates to any Connexin business.

We may scan your incoming Messages for viruses and remove any Messages from Connexin's networks which contain viruses. Although these filters are comprehensive, they do not provide an absolute guarantee that you will not receive viruses via Messages and you are advised to install appropriate anti-virus software on your computer.

We may scan your incoming Messages for spam and move any suspected spam to a separate folder in your email account where you can inspect it to ensure that non-spam Messages hasn't been inadvertently identified as spam. Items of suspected spam may be deleted after 30 days.

World Wide Web and surfing the net

You will be solely responsible for your use of the internet and any web pages owned and/or operated by you that you connect to Connexin's networks using Connexin Broadband. You must not use world wide web pages within or outside Connexin's networks to violate any part of this AUP or to disrupt or attempt to disrupt another internet user's internet experience.

How do you make a complaint?

If you wish to notify us of a breach of this AUP, or if you wish to make a complaint regarding content, data or material that has been stored and/or accessed via Connexin networks or Connexin Broadband, please email us at disputes@connexin.co.uk.

The actions we can take

Firstly, you should be aware that we will block any electronic communication that we reasonably consider to have breached this AUP.

Secondly, if you have breached this AUP, or we or a third party, reasonably suspect that you may have breached this AUP we will notify you by email (provided that this notification does not prejudice any investigation) and we may also:

- a) immediately suspend your access to Connexin Broadband until such time as we are satisfied the breach has stopped;
- b) immediately end your Connexin Broadband Agreement;
- c) notify and/or pass on the details of the breach of the AUP to any relevant government, statutory, self-regulatory or law enforcement authority;
- d) investigate the alleged breach of the AUP, which may include gathering information from you and/or the complaining party (if any) and the examination of any other data or material on Connexin's networks or our servers or
- e) remove (either temporarily or permanently), copy, store, monitor or otherwise deal with data and/or other material on Connexin's networks and/or our servers.

Connexin will use your personal data and other account information in connection with any investigation carried out by Connexin in accordance with this AUP, including by disclosing it to any third party authority that Connexin considers has a legitimate interest in any such investigation or its outcome.
